

Free Admission!

English Subtitles
No Booking Required

Japanese Film Screening

POP IN Q, 10AM

2016 Directed by Naoki Miyahara

A Five middle school girls preoccupied with their everyday lives - stubborn Isumi, lonely Aoi, calm Komatsu, childish Asahi, and enigmatic Saki - are taken away to a fantasy world. There, they learn they have been chosen to save the world, by bringing their five hearts together as one through dance. But will these different girls be able to connect to each other in time?

DAD'S LUNCH BOX, 1PM

2017 Directed by Masakazu Fukatsu

Based on a viral tweet that was retweeted by 80,000 people and received 260,000 likes. Throughout the three years of high school, Midori ate the bento lunch her dad made for her every single day. And in the very last bento of high school, Midori finds a photo of "the first high school bento" along with a hand written letter from her Dad.

Wed 16 Nov 2022

University of Hawai'i - West Oahu, D-146

A part of UH West Oahu International Education Week, co-sponsored by The Consulate General of Japan in Honolulu