Searching for Centenarian Japanese Nationals

September 15th is the Respect-for-the-Aged Day, which honors the elderly. On this occasion, the Japanese Government will present those Japanese nationals who have reached the age of 100 with a congratulatory message and a commemorative gift from the Prime Minister of Japan. This recognition is presented once to every person who reaches the age of 100.

In order to facilitate the presentation of these honors, we are presently gathering information of those who were born by March 31, 1927. If you know of someone who meets the above criteria, please fill out attached sheet and send or email it to us by Wednesday, May 20, 2026.
